

CITY OF LAWDALE
YOUTH ADVISORY COMMITTEE
NOTICE OF UNANTICIPATED VACANCY

The City of Lawndale is inviting interested youth and teens to apply for appointment to the Youth Advisory Committee. The Mayor and City Council will consider the appointment of a new member to serve until September 30, 2018.

This 7-member committee works as an advisory body to the City Council on matters relating to youth and teen programs and activities. When requested by the City Council, the Committee shall identify the needs of youth and teens and propose new programs intended to meet those needs. The Committee shall periodically review existing programs and shall report its conclusions and recommend actions by the City Council. The Community Services Department will be pleased to provide additional information. Call (310) 973-3270.

To qualify for appointment, you must be a Lawndale resident in grades six through 12, who are 18 years of age or less. To qualify for appointment, members must submit an Application for Appointment to the Youth Advisory Committee, and to the city clerk. If the applicant is a minor, a parent or legal guardian must sign the application. Applications are available at City Hall, 14717 Burin Avenue and on the city's website (www.lawndalecity.org), and will be accepted by the City Clerk's Department until the position is filled.
