F. ADMINISTRATION

1. 2016 Movie Night Ideas – Recreation Coordinator Jennifer Muelot requested that YAC start considering some movie ideas if they wish to do a movie night this summer. Sarah requested Little Mermaid, Emily suggested Frozen or Lilo and Stich, and Kaleb was interested in Toy Story. Recreation Coordinator Jennifer Muelot let YAC know that she would seek out a vendor with Disney movies for ideas and pricing.
2. Pirate theme change memo – YAC reviewed the final draft of the memo to go to City Council in regards to changing the theme for the 2017 Youth Day Parade. Kaleb motioned to approve the memo to go to City Council, Katie second, voted 5-0.

3. Youth Day Parade ride on options – YAC discussed who would be available to participate to ride along in the 2016 Youth Day Parade. All YAC members would confirm by the next YAC meeting.
4. Youth Day Parade Application – YAC reviewed the application for submission to the Youth Day Parade.
5. Easter Egg Event volunteers & bubble station – YAC members would confirm with Recreation Coordinator via email or phone call if they would be available to participate once they confirmed with schedules and parents.
6. Teen Center updates and ideas – Recreation Coordinator gave an update on the teen center and shared the design of the upcoming teen center. YAC discussed hours of operation and suggested it be after-school only, Saturdays 3-8pm, and no hours on Sunday. Sarah suggested that on Saturdays if it were to be open that afternoons would be best since many would be participating in sports, family events, or birthday parties but something to do around 5-6pm would be nice.
7. Larch Park update – Recreation Coordinator reported that Larch Park is moving on schedule and is tentatively looking to open May/June of 2016. Recreation Coordinator would keep YAC updated on a grand opening event and details.
